

Edna AmbrymClan Group: Kuku Yalanji/GungandjiTribe: GungandjiClan name: Wangullay

Edna comes from the Gungandji tribe in Yarrabah on her mother's side and is Eastern Kuku Yalanji on her father's side. Her language name is Wangullay.

Born in Cairns 1967 and raised in Yarrabah, Edna's art reflects some of the stories she has heard during her childhood in Yarrabah with family and friends. Edna has a strong sense of colour and design and is an accomplished artist; her paintings appearing in several exhibitions and galleries.

Selected Exhibitions

Wabu Minyaan; Cairns Indigenous Art Fair, Cairns – July/August 2015

A Year in Yarrabah; Cairns Regional Gallery, Cairns – July/August 2015

Icons in Clay; KickArts Contemporary Arts, Cairns - July/August 2015

Freshwater Saltwater; Tandanya Cultural Centre, Adelaide, SA – January 2014

Freshwater Saltwater ; Umi Arts, Cairns - August 2013

Kinship; The Tanks, Cairns – August 2013

You and Me ; Umi Arts, Cairns - December 2013

Silk Cut Awards, Frankston, VIC – 2013 *finalist

Yarrie You, Yarrie Me; Umi Arts, Cairns – February 2012

Pathways; Umi Arts, Cairns - August 2012

Sting in the Tail; Kick Arts and Djumbunji Press, Cairns – 2009

